THE RECESSIONAL

God of our Fathers, known of old,
Lord of our far-flung battle-line.
Beneath Whose awful Hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine;
Lord God of Hosts be with us yet,
Lest we forget! Lest we forget!

The tumult and the shouting dies,
The captains and the kings depart,
Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice—
An humble and a contrite heart;
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget! Lest we forget!

For heathen heart that puts her trust
In reeking tube and iron shard;
All valiant dust that builds on dust,
And guarding calls not Thee to guard;
For frantic boast and foolish word,
Thy mercy on Thy People, Lord!

Benediction

TO BE PRONOUNCED BY
THE MOST REVEREND H. W. K. MOWLL, D.D.,
Archbishop of Sydney and Metropolitan of the Province of N.S.W.

ORDER OF SERVICE

Hymn

O GOD, OUR HELP IN AGES PAST

O God, our Help in ages past,
Our Hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal Home.

Beneath the shadow of Thy Throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure:
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, like a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our Help in ages past,
Our Hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal Home.

Prayer

TO BE OFFERED BY THE REV. J. BOARDMAN, V.D.,

Acting Senior Chaplain of the Forces (C. of E.)

"Almighty God, Who rulest over all the kingdoms of the world, vouchsafe so to guide Thy servant, King George, and all who are set in authority under him, that this Nation and Empire may be wisely governed. Grant, we beseech Thee, that the spirit of service and self-sacrifice shown forth in the War, may flourish among us in the days of peace. Bless all returned sailors, soldiers, nurses, and chaplains. Strengthen the wounded and sick. Comfort the bereaved. We remember before Thee our brave and faithful dead, who made the supreme sacrifice. May this Anzac Memorial, now to be opened and dedicated in Thy Name, be a continual reminder of their great example of faithfulness and endurance even unto death. Help us, we humbly beseech Thee, to improve Thy great mercies, in the furtherance of the peace and prosperity of the Nations, and to Thy great Name be ascribed all honour and glory, now and for evermore. Amen."

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE TRUSTEES (THE HON. B. S. B. STEVENS, M.L.A.) WILL INVITE HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE DUKE OF GLOUCESTER TO DECLARE OPEN THE MEMORIAL.
