Order of Service.

1.—"ADVANCE AUSTRALIA FAIR," ..... The Band.

2.—HYMN,

"O God, our help in ages past,"

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away ;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou guard while life shall last,
And our eternal home.

3.—UNVEILING OF MEMORIAL

By Mr. P. L. MacDonald, late 54th Batt., A.I.F.
(Sub-Branch President.)

4.—DEDICATION OF MEMORIAL

By Chaplain P. Baker, M.A., late 14th Brigade, A.I.F.

5.—PLACING OF WREATHS ON MEMORIAL.

6.—PRAYER, "Let us make Commemoration of the Fallen."

Rev. John F. Christian.

O LORD, Thou lover of souls, Who through the mouth of Thy Prophet of old hast declared that all souls are Thine : we thank Thee for the brave and faithful dead, who willingly laid down their lives on the battle-fields in the War or succumbed to the perils of the deep or of the air. We bless Thee for the dauntless courage of the sailors and soldiers of our Empire who have fallen in the cause of truth and righteousness. In Thy hands, O Father, we leave their departed spirits, for thou hast redeemed them through the blood of Thy dear Son. Grant us so to follow their good example in faithfulness and endurance, even unto death, that we may with them be found worthy of the crown of everlasting life, through the merits of Jesus Christ, our Saviour.—Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER (repeated by all).

OUR FATHER, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name, THY kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses. As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation : But deliver us from evil : For thine is the kingdom, The power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

7.—HYMN

"Lead Kindly Light."

Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on ;
Shouldst lead me on ;

The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead Thou me on ;
but now I loved to choose and see my path,

Keep Thou my feet ; I do not ask to see
The distant scene ; one step enough
I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will : remember not for me,
Past years.

So long Thy power has blest me,
sure it still
Will lead me on ;

O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and
torrent, till
The night is gone.

And with the morn those angel
faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and
lost awhile.

So long Thy power has blest me,
sure it still
Will lead me on ;

O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and
torrent, till
The night is gone.

And with the morn those angel
faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and
lost awhile.

8.—ADDRESS ..... Chaplain P. Baker, M.A., late 14th Brig., A.I.F.

9.—PRAYER, "Comfort for those bereaved."

Mr. Geo. Allen, (late 17th Battalion).

O GOD, the strength of those who suffer, we rejoice in the communion of saints. We remember before Thee the widows, and those who suffered bereavement during the Great War. May they have the assurance of Thy continual love, and realise that, though conversant with those who have passed on, be no longer possible, according to the flesh, there is no separation in the realm of love. Lift us all unto that Light and Love, where those on earth are ours with those in heaven. Through Jesus Christ, Our Lord.—Amen.

10.—OFFERTORY ..... Selection by the Band.

11.—HYMN.

"The Recessional!"

God of our fathers, known of old,
The tumult and the shouting dies,
Lord of our far-flung battle line,
The captains and the kings depart,
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice,
Dominion over palm and pine—
An humble and a contrite heart.
Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget,
Lest we forget—lest we forget.

12.—THE LAST POST — One Minute Silence. — Reveille.
Bandsman Mervyn Helson.

13.—PRAYER AND BENEDICTION ..... Rev. C. L. Williams.
